

AARON JUSTICE

Aaron is a Christian singer/songwriter and worship leader from a small town in East Tennessee. He is married to a wonderful woman, Ashley and they have a son, Aidan.

His desire is to share the love and hope that we have in Jesus to the world through his music. The very first song that he wrote was called, "All I Need," which spoke of how God pulled him through depression after his parent's divorce and grandfather's death at the impressionable age of just 16. That was when Aaron knew the calling that God had placed on his life was to show hurting people that God is with them in the toughest of times and they are never alone through his music.

Each song that he writes tells a part of his story and testimony, both the highs and the lows throughout his life. His prayer is that through his songs he can spread the message that everyone is loved, that everyone has a purpose, and that God has a plan for their lives.

Having served in the Army, he has a special place in his heart for the men and women in military and the unique challenges they face.
