

KOT FLAME

James Robert

Guitarist and Lead Vocalist, James is an ordained minister who is affiliated with Evangel Association of Christian Ministries. His musical journey began by learning upright bass and piano. He switched over to guitar 20 years ago when he fronted the James Robert Band. James contributes much of the original material for the group.

Joshua Daniel

Bass and Vocals. He's written several songs and has a huge heart for ministering. His other instrumental interests include piano, violin, saxophone, and the bass ukulele

Zane Nathaniel

Drums, Percussion and Vocals. Zane, KOT Flame youngest member embraces many different musical genres. He loves leading worship and is currently learning finger-style guitar and piano. The bands name came from a title song "Keeper Of The Flame" God birthed into Zane's heart. Zane and Joshua study hard and then asked their dad James for assistance.

They believe the greatest accomplishment is Keeping the Flame of God's Love/Spirit alive in our hearts as believers and passing that legacy on! KOT Flame provides rock concerts, acoustical shows and leads worship.

KOT Flame cannot do anything without prayer and places prayer at the front of everything they do! KOT Flame believe the Spirit of God wants to change/affect the hearts they minister to and it starts with them first! - KOT Flame holds high the message of the cross.

- Providing a positive/inspirational atmosphere for all to enjoy and move to; with both covers and originals Welcome to the world of KOT Flame where the human condition is presented with the message of hope.
